

Celebrating Black History Month 2012

The African-American/Caribbean Education Association Inc.
(AACEAINC)

Presents

“Celebrating Black History Month
with Health Awareness, Cultural Heritage & Dialogue”

Saturday, February 11, 2012 * 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM
The Queens Central Public Library at the Jamaica Center
89-11 Merrick Boulevard, Jamaica, NY 11432
Located near subway, buses, municipal parking, and the LIRR.

*Free Blood Pressure and Blood Sugar Screening
by Queens Hospital Center*

Featured Health Speakers:

- Dr. Florence Washington
"Diabetes and Hypertension"

- Hon. Ernestine Washington
"DNA & Genetics--How can we protect our cells?"

AACEAINC will recognize iconic figure Henrietta Lacks and the story of her immortal DNA

CULTURAL HERITAGE

Preserving History of the African-American and Doing Our Part

Featured Speaker:

Shirley Phipps

"The Smithsonian

NMAAHC Needs Our Help"

DIALOGUE

Open Discussions and Workshops

on

Health, Culture and Education

Topics are Pre-Planned and Coming From You,
the Audience

Facilitators:

Education: Ayanna Mays, CEO Track Star Tutoring

Culture and Health: Ms. Phipps, Dr. Washington,

and Ms. E. Washington

Further Exploratory Period

and

GUESTS

